Tactical Fighter Training, known as TFT, is a United Kingdom company

TFT delivers NATO & Western defence training expertise rapidly, safely and effectively.

TFT has delivered live and academic training to international partners across fighter aircraft, tactical airlift, naval air defence, and specialist troops. Following Training Needs Analysis (TNA) with the end-user, TFT designs courseware, classroom presentations, synthetic and live training syllabi to frontline objectives.

TFT provided short courses covering naval air defence, F16, FA50, Su30, C295 & specialist troops including:

- NVG training
- Air-to-Air Beyond Visual Range (BVR)
- Air-to-Surface Dynamic Targeting (DT)
- Maritime security & air defence
- Airdrop and tactical insertion
- Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD)
- Electronic countermeasures and SAM defence

Tactical skills instruction includes:

- Air-Air and Air-Surface weapon employment
- Tactical low flying down to 100 feet
- Unprepared airstrip operations in high-threat environments
- High-threat Counter-Improvised Explosive Device (C-IED) training

TFT operates within the UK export control framework and obtains appropriate licences for defence knowledge transfer.
